PLOWING MATCH WORK BEES

We have a few construction projects needing done. The first is the advertisement signs on the highway against the ball diamonds. On SUNDAY MAY 12th we will need some extra hands getting the arena ready for the Plowing Match. This will start at NOON. If you can help out in some way please come on down to the arena around noon.

WORKBEES: Week of June 10th to 15th

Plowing Match Work Bees

Watch for sign on main street

COMMUNITY BEAUTIFICATION

COCO will be filling the flower boxes this year with Red and White flowers as part of Canada's 150th celebration projects. There is no beautification program sponsored by the county this year, so COCO is asking any business who has flowers planted in front of their business, to help out by watering the plants when they need it. If this does not work for your business contact Terry Blake.

Beer Gardens Help Wanted

Beer Garden director is looking for volunteers to work at the door checking ID or selling beverage tickets. If you can help with a shift during the Plowing Match give Gwen a call @ 780 832 7988.

CLEAN UP MEETING

Grounds clean up will start at noon on the Monday after the Plowing Match. A supper meeting will occur in the arena directly after the cleanup and supper. Everyone is encouraged to help out and attend the meeting.

EVENING SLOW PITCH AND HORSESHOES

Jade Brown will organize a weekly evening where the community can get together for a fun game of ball and horseshoes. The days to get together will be posted on the Plowing Match facebook page after the Plowing Match.

HISTORY BOOK
BITS AND BITES

Betty Grusie has collected bits of history and family recipes and put them in to a small book. If you are interested in buying one of the books, call Betty. They are $15.00 each. Proceeds after expenses, will be donated to the museum and the Senior Center.
